EDITORIALS.

The Senate confirmed March 22, Hambridge Colby as Secretary of State, on the favorable recommendation of Chairman Lodge's Committee, without debate.

Clemenceau is actually on ship heading for the wilds of Africa. Roosevelt went there, so did Livingston. They carried the Christ Child there. The last for refugees, the others for rest. But we whose ancestors were born there declare AMERICA IS GOOD ENOUGH FOR ME!

An Indian Cavalry, welcomed the thought. Untrained the Indian was a hefty fighter. He has felt himself and with no little right compelled to fight against the Government. Now the Government seeks to induce him to fight for it. The enlistment is going on at Ponca City, Okla., with not too much enthusiasm. The Negroes: Come in, valliant ho, the cavalry water is fine.

The tremendous and tireless efforts of our lawyers, Hueston and Calloway have been rewarded and Dr. Bundy is out on bond and granted another trial which promises to be unprejudiced and fair. To gain this point is a great achievement. But the goal of Hueston and Calloway is absolute freedom or acquittal and they are redoubling their energies to that end. Let's give them three cheers.

The great legal victory which resulted in Dr. Leroy Bundy's release was the result of the brilliant, unceasing battle waged by his counsel, Hueston & Calloway of this City. These two able barristers have emerged successfully and have won a great legal battle for the race. This case has had practically the entire time of Mr. Hueston since the trial of Dr. Bundy began. The race is indeed proud of these young men.

Last year when herculean efforts were being made to release Allen Chapel from debt it was repeatedly declared Allen Chapel out of debt will at once begin his real Community service. The mortgage was burned more than six months ago. What feature of Community service has Allen since entered upon or what is her larger and more helpful program.

The Art world, especially of England, has been strangely stirred by the statue of the Saviour chiseled by an American born Jewish Sculptor, Jacob Epstein. It does not represent the meek and lowly Messiah, says one Jewish critic. "The head is elongated and of a Negro type with an arched Roman nose tilted up at the tip and the toes are turned upward. The facial expression is neither meek nor suffering, nor sympathetic but rather aloof, strong and proud and yet there is nothing irreverent about it. The spectator is held as if by a spell by a dominating intellectual force."

CLOSE RANKS BLACK MEN.
Now that the momentary bitterness engendered in the Primary Campaign have died out and have been relegated to the realm of forgetfulness, it behooves every real, red-blooded Republican to line up, shoulder to shoulder and fight along side of those representatives of other political organizations who believe in civic decency and honesty to release our splendid city from the thralldom of the rotten government which exists in this City today. The Black man is naturally a Republican and under ordinary conditions can always be counted upon to advocate the principles and support the candidates of that grand old party. And the Sun believes that if let alone and permitted to work out their own problem the vast majority will still be found enrolled under the banner of that earnest and honest men of our race who may have in the past affiliated with the Democratic party but we do sincerely believe that with the great issues confronting us in the City the State and the Nation in this momentous year 1920 that every Negro should be able to answer when the roll of the loyal and uncompromising supporters of the REPUBLICAN PARTY is called on April 6, proudly and firmly HERE. Vote right Election day.

WITHOUT VISIBLE MEANS.
(The Detroit, Mich., Leader.)
There is a great army of men living in the cities that apparently earn their living without a visible means. It is not our business to deal with how. That belongs to the exponents of the law—the police department. But it is the influence that it seems to have upon our boys and girls that causes our complaint. It is terrible for the youth to be thrown in contact with such lawlessness continually. To see such parasites getting what seems to be such an easy living with so little effort. It is inviting without word. Good clothes, diamonds, and fine cars appeal to younger men with the result that there are many failing to keep up legitimate trades and even professions, because of the easy manner this vast army without visible means of support evidences. A premium for decency and good citizenship a demonstrative appreciation for right over wrong, and an earnest effort to save our boys and girls from disgrace and ruin, is one of the greatest demands of decent colored people residing in cities.

Betty & Sam's Little Corner

THEY SAY

—That the politicians are making even the smallest guy feel important these days.

—That gladness and sorrow like the rose and the thorn are insolubly linked together.

—That the bigger a fellow becomes, the louder the skeleton's chains will rattle in his closet.

—That life has no oplate powerful enough to deaden the sting of an accusing conscience.

—That a true friend is the fellow who remembers his old friends after he becomes prosperous.

—That if some men were to be sold at a price valued on the good they were to the community, they wouldn't bring a dime.

—That if you want to make enemies among the unprogressive and nonaggressive Callad population, just do something worth while.

—That when the lights went off the other night at a certain well known Church one of the brethren reached over and gently caressed a sister. But the lights came on with our warning and now the d—l is to pay in a couple of families.

—That a certain Debating Society recently had for its subject for discussion: "When is a woman at her best?" One member said "When she has plenty of money that she may secure what she needs." Another member said "When she's young." Another said "Between the ages of 20 and 35." One old brother who had had plenty of experience said "Ain't none of y'all right about this subject, a woman is at her best when she's dead." The Society broke up.
